

ARROWMONT

SCHOOL OF ARTS AND CRAFTS

Medium: Brooms

Instructor: Hunter Elliot

Dates: October 4-9, 2026

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This workshop invites students to explore the vast possibilities of experimental broommaking. Designed to shake out the cobwebs for makers at any stage, this class is ideal for those interested in expanding their current practice or for experienced broom makers creatively stuck in a rut. Students will utilize various design tactics, approaches to creative thinking, and multiple materials to produce unusual results, all while celebrating and engaging with traditional broommaking techniques. This is an advanced exploration intended to challenge makers to get outside of their comfort zones. Prior broommaking experience and good hand dexterity are required for this workshop.

WHAT TO BRING

- Students will not need to bring anything but are encouraged to bring any materials they want to experiment with during the class (broom or brush fibers, cords, thread, wire, etc)
- If students have preferred tools they are encouraged to bring those to use for the class

MATERIALS FEES | $135.00-$155.00

Fees are assessed on an individual class basis and may vary from class to class depending on the amount of materials used and the number of students in the class, this keeps your out-of-pocket costs lower than a typical flat fee. Fees include all provided studio materials as assigned by the Instructor. Material fees are to be paid in the Supply Store no later than midday on the last day of workshop instruction.

Please be advised that the above course description and materials list has been written and approved by the instructor.
